About This Content

Today you are driving the world famous Flying Scotsman from the 1920s. You have a big day ahead of you so while you take in the beauty of this train, try to keep to your passenger run also!

The passenger run takes you on a massive 125 mile drive down the ECML from Edinburgh through to Newcastle where you'll finish your shift for the day. There are many passengers that can not wait to get on the Scotsman so be sure to make all your stops so not to disappoint.

It is a breathtaking experience to drive the Flying Scotsman so enjoy the beauty of this great train as it rolls on through the East Coast Main Line.

Your schedule today - Edinburgh to Newcastle, stopping at all stations:

Prestonpans
Longniddry
Drem
Dunbar
Berwick
Chathill
Alnmouth
Acklington
Widdington

Pegswood
Morpeth
Cramlington
Heaton
Manors
Newcastle

This tribute session offers the 1920s Flying Scotsman and many 1900 - 1960 trains running throughout the ECML route. The route itself is not from the 1920s era but is used to recreate the Flying Scotsman experience. Also note that the Flying Scotsman locomotive is available to download on the Download Station for free.

I don't play TANE very often but I do have to say this is really\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665 There's a great reason why this is only 4 dollars as opposed to the other DLC's average of 10-20 dollars each. Everything in this DLC pack can actually be downloaded for free! That's right, the Download Station offers both the locomotive AND the route in this DLC pack for free!

The only thing this really adds to the game is a pre-made session, and it's a \u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665ing boring one. It takes literally more than 3 hours to complete, or if you're bad at timing stops or have trouble with a faulty coupling and need to chase your coaches down a \u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665ing hill and back to the last station, expect to be in front of your computer screen for at least 6 hours. It tries to offer some uniqueness with a voiceover narration that gives some facts and tidbits about The Flying Scotsman as you play, but he's very quiet and monotone, so that's kinda\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665 too.

NOTE: No idea why it says I have 0 hours on record for this. I've played T:ANE for hundreds of hours and I recorded my first run through this DLC, and only made it a third of the way through when I hit the 2 hour mark.. This DLC Includes alot more trains that just the Flting Scotsman.

For An Example with this dlc you get King Edward II free of charge.

Worth The Money.. it sucks its a first person driving session and in the session YOUR NOT EVEN DRIVING THE FLYING SCOTSMAN its a diesel. it sucks its a first person driving session and in the session YOUR NOT EVEN DRIVING THE FLYING SCOTSMAN its a diesel. it sucks its a first person driving session and in the session YOUR NOT EVEN DRIVING THE FLYING SCOTSMAN its a diesel. I've got the Flying Scotsman loco and cars and the scenario and I got to say, this is an awesome pack for ECML.. This DLC Includes alot more trains that just the Flting Scotsman.

Worth The Money.. Excellent session set up! Graphics inside the cab were great, there is a history narrative that goes along the route I really enjoyed....and the passinger cars are top notch inside and out!. Excellent session set up!
